HOLMES & BILSBORROW—HARDWARE.

To make an article better than any other COSTS TIME and MONEY. Beckwith's GENUINE ROUND OAK is made better than any other stove. Better castings, better material, better workmanship. Results after 24 years—a splendid reputation, a splendid business, and best of all, satisfied customers. Buy the genuine, it costs no more. See the Name on the Leg.

WE ALSO SELL THE

Jewel Base Heater

Wood Stoves—have sold them for years and have yet to find a dissatisfied purchaser. They are simply all right, and positively the best base heating wood stove on the market to-day.

COAL STOVES?

Why, of course. When you think of excellence in coal stoves, some way or other the name "GARLAND" naturally pops into your mind. Everybody knows about the excellence of the Garland coal burners, and the mention of the name is all that is necessary to interest intending purchasers.

Cummings cloak sale was a success and his customers may expect another cloak sale soon. In the meantime his large and well bought stock of dry goods merits your attention.

A prominent citizen trundling a wheelbarrow along the walk, remarked to the NORTHERNER, "I suppose I am violating the ordinance, but I'll chance it." Fortunately, he escaped arrest.

Holmes & Bilsborrow have a fine display of heating stoves at their store, a prominent place in which is occupied by the old reliable "Round Oaks." See their new adv. in this week's paper.

Edward Haight, who was convicted of having made an indecent assault on the person of a young girl, was sentenced to a year at Ionia. Sheriff Lamberson took him "over the road" last Tuesday.

On the afternoon of Saturday, Oct. 19, Broughton will send up two balloons, each with an order for a pair of shoes. During the evening of the same day, he will send up a quantity of sky rockets, some with shoe orders annexed. See his adv. for particulars.

Pat. Murphy, before Justice Mason yesterday morning, pleaded guilty to having spoken slanderous words concerning Laura Mellin. His honor evidently regarded the offense as not being of a very serious character and let Pat. off with a fine of one dollar and costs.

Sunday, Oct. 27, will be prison Sunday throughout Michigan and the clergy have been petitioned by the state board of correction and charities to devote their sermons to the subject of prison reforms, present conditions and methods of helping discharged prisoners. They are also asked to visit the reformatories before tackling the subject.

Last week, Waters & Co. advertised in the NORTHERNER some second hand bicycles for sale. The lot was closed out in less than a week. Two were sold in one day to parties who read the adv. and came after the particular wheels they purchased. This was one of the instances where the direct results of advertising could be accurately measured.

Our exchanges are much worried over the location of the Bryant paper company, which wants to build a new mill somewhere and has offered to go to Kalamazoo for a $10,000 bonus, while other towns are hustling to get it. The NORTHERNER would suggest that if the company wants the finest location in the state, with good water power and plenty of pure water, Paw Paw exactly fills the requirements.

Miss Ana Closson, assistant in our high school, has been ill since last Monday, but is recovering and expects to resume her place next Monday.

On September 25, at South Bend, a shooting match for a purse of $100 was held between the champion rifle shot, Henry Bogardus, and Fred J. Wells, who was advertised as the "champion of Michigan." Bogardus gave Wells 20 balls in 100. Wells won the match. Fred is a Paw Paw boy and, while we didn't know anything about his being the state champion, we did know that he was always handy with a gun.

We have little pity for others until we are in a situation to claim it for ourselves. We laugh at the man who makes a scarecrow of himself in an ill-fitting suit. "Serves him right; he ought to know better," we say; but when we are tempted and invest in a "wonderful bargain," offered by some unreliable dealer, we laugh on the other side of our face. No need to take chances when you can get "H. S. & M." clothing at E. Smith & Co's. That label on a garment is a guarantee of satisfaction. The long brick store is the place.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Sunday night, a fire alarm was sounded. The fire company promptly responded. The barn on the old Chas. Nash place was nearly consumed before the fire was discovered. The barn was unoccupied, and the fire was doubtless incendiary, or the work of tramps or other careless individuals. The building was insured for $200 in E. F. Parks' agency. Osoobock Bros., who were the last occupants of the barn, lost some sleighs, stoves and the articles that they had not removed. The house on the place burned last winter.

When Sheriff Lamberson appeared at Lansing with the two boys, Harris and Brode, the superintendent of the industrial school refused to receive them because no certificate from the county agent accompanied the certificates of conviction. Under the circumstances, the sheriff could do nothing else than to bring the boys back to jail. Last Monday, they took another trip to the capital, accompanied by the county agent in person, who was prepared to make any reasonable certificate that might be required. It seems that the county agent is a "bigger man" than the circuit judge.

The concert given at the opera house Friday evening of last week by the Morse Concert Co. under the direction of Prof. S. B. Morse of Kalamazoo, was a fine entertainment and called out a fair sized audience, made up largely of people who appreciate high class music.

S. Homer Eaton, impersonator, is a genius, his female characters being especially well done. He is also a fine baritone singer, whose musical voice it seems too bad to injure by the strain upon it in character work. Miss Irene Bitely, pianist, is an artist. George Crook, baritone, has a rich full voice—a little lacking in expression perhaps—but he is a young man who has great possibilities before him.

The band boys feel very much aggrieved at the action of the common council in taking from them the use of the corporation hall as a place for practice. They do not care so much for the use of the hall as for the charges of improper conduct and breach of faith made against them. The restrictions placed about their use of the hall by the council, as to smoking, etc., were eminently proper and worthy of observance, and the boys claim they did observe the conditions to the letter. They are preparing to appear before the council to present their side of the matter, and they are clearly entitled to a hearing, as the charges against them and the action of the council were without their knowledge. If the charges of impropriety are sustained to the satisfaction of the council, they should stand firm in the position they have taken and refuse further use of the hall. If they find that a mistake has been made, the band should be given back the privilege that has been taken from them. The business men of the town have expended a large amount of money in purchasing instruments for the band, and are interested in its welfare. Provided the boys are willing to use the rooms under proper restrictions, and provided further they can show that there has been no breach of faith on their part, there is no good reason why they should not use the hall. The NORTHERNER has no doubt exact justice will be done.

Dr. Charles M. O'Dell was born in Kingston, Canada, of American parentage, in December, 1814, and came to Michigan in the spring of 1850, settling first at Mattawan. With the exception of five years spent in Dowagiac, he has been a resident of this county ever since that date. He has been a practicing physician of the Homoeopathic school for the past 47 years. He died at his residence, in this village, last Monday morning, at half past three o'clock, of cholera morbus. He had been in feeble health for a long time, but was able to be out on the streets as recently as last week Thursday. His death was sudden and unexpected. He was an ordained elder in the Methodist church and had spent considerable time as a missionary among the Indians. The deceased was a faithful and enthusiastic oddfellow, having been made a member of Dowagiac lodge thirty-three years ago and having retained continuous membership there ever since. He was also a charter member of Paw Paw encampment and likewise a member of Fidelity Rebekah lodge at this place. He was married, Feb. 6, 1838, to Hannah Ransom Tuttle. His funeral was held at the Methodist church on Wednesday last, under the auspices of the oddfellows, Rev. F. W. Corbett, officiating; burial at Prospect Hill. The deceased leaves a widow and two children, Barnabas O'Dell of this place, and Mrs. Henrietta F. Maynard of Chicago, to mourn his loss. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends in this place.
